A memorial service for Janellyn Antrim, 75, Fishers, a former Dunkirk resident, is set for Saturday at 11 a.m. at Calvary United Methodist Church in Dunkirk. She died Tuesday in her home.

Born in Dunkirk on Feb. 15, 1932, to Chester and Helen Smith, she graduated from Dunkirk High School in 1950 and Ball State Nursing School in 1954.

Her husband of 51 years, Richard Antrim, survives.

Living most of her life in Dunkirk, she had recently moved to Fishers to be near family. She also had a home in Bradenton, Fla.

She had worked for Dr. Shroyer in Dunkirk until his retirement and then became owner of Country Manor Nursing Homes until 1982.

She was a member of Calvary United Methodist Church in Dunkirk.

Surviving besides her husband are a son, Ed Antrim; two daughters, Mrs. Ron (Laurinda "Renny") Louks, Fishers, and Mrs. Brad (Mary) Hutchison, Indianapolis; 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be after the service until 1 p.m. at the church. Private burial will be held at a later date in Claycomb Cemetery, Redkey.

Memorials may be sent to Calvary United Methodist Church Building Fund or Dr. Shroyer Christian Scholarship Fund in care of Meacham Funeral Service, P.O. Box 275, Albany, IN 47320.
