

12-26-92

Jeneane Besser

Jeneane Besser, RR 2, Ceylon, died Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Adams County Memorial Hospital, Decatur. She was the wife of Lowell Besser, who survives.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Downing Funeral Home, Geneva.

Commercial Review

12-28-92

Portland
Commercial
Review

J'Neane Besser

Services for J'Neane M. Besser, 48, Ceylon, are set for 9 a.m. Tuesday at the Downing Funeral Home, Geneva, with the Rev. Wilbur Taylor officiating. Burial will be in the IOOF Cemetery at Dunkirk.

Mrs. Besser died Friday evening at Adams County Memorial Hospital, Decatur.

She was a nurse's aide at Chalet Village Care Center, Berne, and attended the High Street United Methodist Church in Geneva.

Born Jan. 20, 1944, in Blackford County, she was the daughter of Adelma and Romain (Gray) Fear. She was married Nov. 13, 1965, in Dunkirk, to Lowell "Mike" Besser, who survives.

Surviving besides her husband are her mother, Romain Fear, Montpelier; one daughter, Angie D. Besser, Decatur; one son, Michael E. Besser, at home; three sisters, Mrs. Tom (Janet) Simmons, Joyce Smith and Linda Gregory, all of Montpelier.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 9 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until time of services Tuesday.

Memorials may be made to the Besser family.