

Gladys McCurdy, 88, 621 W. Third St., Portland, died early Jay County Hospital. Born on Nov. 11, 1991, in Geneva, she was the daughter of James and Pearl (Armantrout) Landers. She was married April 28, 1928 to Kermit McCurdy, who died before her.

Mrs. Curdy was retired from The Jay Garment Company and Happy Humpty Restaurant.

She is survived by her daughter, Lois Borders, Portland; a brother, James Landers, Portland; and a grandson, Tom Borders, also of Portland.

Private family services will be held at Green Park Cemetery in Portland. Baird-Freeman Funeral Home, Portland, is in charge of arrangements.

Contributed by genealogy_guy_2012 - no source listed