

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Wednesday, December 3, 2003

Elizabeth Ann Medler, 72, 707 W. North St., Portland, died Monday in the Jay County Hospital following a sudden illness.

Born in Portland on July 27, 1931, to Dave and Beatrice (Wagner) McKinley, she was married Dec. 10, 1950 to Neil Medler, who survives.

A 1949 graduate of Portland High School, she was a co-owner along with her husband of Medlers Furniture in Portland

A member of Asbury United Methodist Church, she was a member of the choir there for 50 years.

She was also a member of Tri Kappa Sorority for 50 years; co-treasurer of the Portland Alumni Association; and served as a member of the Jay County Library Board for 16 years.

Other survivors include, three sons, Mike Medler, Noblesville, Pat Medler, Pendleton, and George Medler, Springhill, Fla.; a brother, Bill McKinley, Sarasota, Fla.; one sister, Linda Dailey, Plymouth, Mich.; and eight grandchildren.

Services are Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at Asbury United Methodist Church, Portland, with Pastor Keith Olson presiding.

Burial will follow in Green Park Cemetery.

Visitation is Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home and Thursday at the church prior to services.

Memorials may be made to the Asbury United Church Endowment Fund.

Contributed by Jane Edson