

Richard C. Whiteman, died suddenly at 12:30 o'clock Thursday morning at his home on North Commerce Street from an attack of heart failure (age 64) Near midnight Mrs. Whiteman hearing her husband apperantly making a peculiar noise in his sleep went to his bed and found him in an unconcious condition and before a physician could be called he was dead. He was in seemingly good health Wednesday and about his work as usual. Mr. Whiteman was born in Jay County, February 12, 1850 and was the son of Samuel and Nancy Whiteman and one daughter Edity, wife of H.L. Andrews of this city. Two sisters Mrs. Jessie Bishop of Akron O., and Miss Belle Whiteman of Missouri and two grandchildren Veda and Reginald Andrews also remain...

Contributed by Kyle - no source listed