

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Tuesday, May 31, 2005

Services for Patsy Joan Bond Williamson, 66, 703 E. High St., in Portland, are Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with Pastor David Wade officiating.

She died Friday in Parkview Hospital in Fort Wayne.

Burial will be in the Green Park Cemetery.

Born on Dec. 6, 1938, in Jay County, to Joseph and Mabel May (Smith) Bond, she married William Albert Williamson on April 22, 1958. He died on Jan. 3, 2004.

A homemaker, she was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Bruce A. Williamson, Portland, and Bradley W. Williamson, Indianapolis; three daughters, Mrs. Scott (Ginger L.) Creech, Elwood, Mrs. William (Brenda S.) Delauter, Fayetteville, N.C., and Mrs. Randall (Donna K.) Roth, Winchester; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Visitation is Wednesday from 5 to 8 p.m. and prior to services on Thursday at the funeral home.

Contributed by Jane Edson