

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Monday, January 31, 2005

Services for Charles R. Harshman, 92, 657 E. North St., Portland, are Monday at 2 p.m. at the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home, with the Rev. Herbert Hummel officiating. Burial will be at Maple Lawn Cemetery in Pennville. Harshman died Friday at Jay County Hospital.

Born May 4, 1912 in Jay County to William and Effie (Lindley) Harshman, he married Marjorie Sanders Green on Dec. 3, 1955. She survives.

He worked for Hardy Chevrolet for 35 years as a paint and body man. After he retired, he owned and operated Harshman's Auto Body and Paint Shop in Portland. He was a member of the Portland Moose Lodge.

Other survivors include a son, Richard Harshman, Frankfort; a daughter, Mrs. Harold (Joan) Nelson, Muncie; a stepson, Tom R. Green, Celina, Ohio; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jack (Connie) Chowning, Portland, and Mrs. Rick (Linda) Hudson, Montpelier; a sister, Martha Harmon, Portland; eight grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren and seven step-great-grandchildren.

Calling hours are Monday from noon to 2 p.m. at the funeral home. Memorials may be directed to the Jay County Cancer Society or the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Contributed by Jane Edson