

Mary Axe, wife of the late Charles Axe, died Friday evening at four o'clock at the home of her son, George Axe, six miles northeast of this city.

The health of the deceased had been failing for a couple of years and her death was due to old age.

She was born May 27, 1828 and was past seventy-seven years of age at her death. She leaves the following children: Mrs. Fred Young of near Mt. Zion, Mrs. Stewart Hanlin of four miles northeast of town and George Axe with whom she lived. Mr. Axe died three months ago Friday.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Mt. Zion Evangelical Church with interment in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Portland Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Thursday, August 10, 1905

Contributed by Jim Cox