

Died: In Madison township, this county, on the 21st of April, 1872, Sarah, wife of Daniel Atkinson, in the forty-first year of her age. Thus another respected member of society has been hurried from this world of sorrow and care to her long home.

Her loss will be deeply felt by the large circle of friends she leaves, and to the husband and children it is irreparable. She was highly respected by all who knew her.
