

Emma May Martin, daughter of Libbie Binegar, died at the home of her aunt near Richmond June 25, 1896, at 1 am. The deceased was aged 2 years, 2 months, 16 days. She had been taken to her aunt's by her mother and grandfather on a visit and was sick but a few days when she was called home to Heaven.

The remains were brought home Thursday evening. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Stovenour at the Union Chapel Church Friday afternoon, June 26, 1896; interment at Wells Cemetery.

Portland Daily Commercial, Jay County, IN; July 2, 1896

Contributed by Jim Cox