

Commercial Review, The (Portland, IN) - Saturday, October 15, 2005

Marion F. Campbell, 60, Geneva, died Wednesday following a car accident north of Portland.

Born March 2, 1945, in Portland to William and Helen (Cummings) Lee, she attended Portland High School. Married to Gene K. Campbell on June 10, 1972, they moved to Geneva in 1996. He lives at AmeriCare Living Center of Portland.

She worked at Jay Garment Corporation, Portland, for 20 years.

Other survivors include her mother-in-law, Ruby I. Campbell, Geneva; eight brothers, Charles Irvin, Farmland, James Helman Wolford, Connersville, Jeffery Lee, St. Petersburg, Fla., Donald Jones, Lynn, Terry Lee, Monterey, Tenn., David Lee, Portland, Jay Lee, Berne, Cecil Cotton, Muncie; eight sisters, Mrs. Bud (Ina) Lacy, Winchester, Mrs. John (Lucy) Shaneyfelt, Bronson, Mich., Mrs. Jerry (Bonnie) Jewell, Lafayette, Mrs. Jim (Mary) Florence, Winchester, Amanda Burry, Rome, Ga., Mrs. Bill (Linda) Hicks, Geneva, Mrs. Harvey (Brenda) Morgan and Penny Lee, both of Portland.

Services are Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Portland Chapel of the Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home with Pastor Larry Eads officiating. Burial will be in the Wells Cemetery, northwest of Portland. Visitation is Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the funeral home.

Memorials may be sent to the donor's choice.

Contributed by Jane Edson