

Services for Mrs. Faye McKibben, 58, of 4106 Paulding Road will be at 1:30 pm Tuesday in Williamson & Spencer Funeral Home, Portland. She was dead on arrival at 11:50 pm Friday at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mrs. McKibben, who was a native of Portland, resided in Fort Wayne 25 years.

Surviving are her husband, Virgil C.; four brothers, Francis Hall, Dunkirk, Kenneth H. Hall, Portland, Robert Hall, Redkey, and Donald Hall, Barstow, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd, LaGrange and Mrs. Viona Craig, Muncie.

Friends may call after 1 pm Monday at the funeral home and burial will be in Union Chapel Cemetery, Jay County.

Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette, Allen County, IN; Saturday, August 3, 1975

Contributed by Jim Cox

PORTLAND--Mrs. Faye McKibben, a former Portland resident, 58, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Hospital in Fort Wayne Friday night.

She is survived by her husband, Virgil C.; two sisters, Mrs. Viona Craig, Muncie, and Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd, LaGrange; and four brothers, Francis Hall of Dunkirk, Kenneth Hall of Portland, Robert Hall of Redkey and Donald Hall of Barstow, Calif.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Williamson and Spencer Funeral Home here with burial in Union Chapel Cemetery (*aka Wells Cemetery, located in Pennville). Friends may call after 1 p.m. Monday.

THE MUNCIE STAR, (IN); Sunday, August 3, 1975

Contributed by Jane