

Mrs. Margaret Moore, an aged resident of Bryant, was found dead in bed Sunday morning. She had been in ill health for some time and a sufferer from heart trouble and her demise though a terrible shock was not entirely unexpected. The discovery was made by her son-in-law, A. E. Sullivan, who made his home with her. She had been heard earlier in the morning and when found seemed to have fallen to sleep, but it was the sleep which has no earthly awakening. The deceased is an aunt of Ed V. Fitzpatrick, county clerk.

Mrs. Moore was born at Muncie on July 4, 1826, and was married to John G. Martin, who preceded her to the grave many years. In 1876, she was married to William Moore who died in 1892. Mrs. Moore was a good neighbor, highly respected and leaves a number of children to mourn her loss.

The funeral took place at the New Methodist Church at Bryant at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. Harter officiating. Interment at Wells Cemetery; J. S. Hines undertaker in charge.

Weekly Commercial, Jay County, IN; Thursday, February 13, 1896

Contributed by Jim Cox