

Cecil O. Steen, 83, 120 N. Commerce St., Portland, died Monday at AmeriCare Living Center of Portland. Born in Portland on April 22, 1923, to Frank and Della (Geesaman) Steen, he was married to Helga Hartley, who died in 2001.

A veteran of the United States Army serving during World War I, he retired from Portland Water Department after 37 years. He was a member of Portland Moose Lodge and American Legion Post No. 211.

Survivors include a brother, Homer Steen, Portland.

Services are Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Baird-Freeman Funeral Home with Pastor Steve Arnold officiating. Burial will be in Union Chapel Cemetery. Visitation is one hour prior to services on Thursday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be sent to the donor's choice.

Contributed by genealogy guy 2012 - no source listed