

From the Portland Commercial, Thursday,
October 6, 1887 p1 c1
(Pennville News)

Pension: L.J. Gible who has been trying to secure a pension for the past 10 years but cannot find any of his old comrades that he might give proper evidence received official notice last week that his pension has been allowed dating back to 1865. Mr. Gible entered the army when he was 14 years old and served all through the war and was one the heros of Gettysburg.