

Pennville High Principal Dead

Pennville, Mar. 12 -

Funeral services for M. Clyde Black, 42, principal of the Pennville High School will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the local Methodist church with the pastor, Rev. C. A. Hile, in charge. Burial will be at French Lick Saturday.

Mr. Black was taken to the Jay County Hospital Monday night suffering with streptococcic meningitis. He came to Pennville in the fall of 1926 and taught mathematics in the high school even after he was promoted principal a few years later.

Surviving are the widow, their only child, John Wendell, 6, and three sisters, four brothers and mother.
