

Clipping hand dated 7/31/72

Fay L. Crisler, 82, 1538 W. Memorial Drive, died at his residence Monday evening after a six-month illness. He had resided in Muncie for 57 years, moving here from Redkey.

He was retired from Marhoefer Packing Co. where he worked for 35 years. For the past five years he had worked at Gommel's Market.

Mr. Crisler was a 50-year member of Halfway Lodge, F&AM at Redkey.

Survivors are his wife, Darlie; three daughters, Mrs. Charles (Louadda) Marks, Fort Wayne, Mrs. Earl (Winifred) Bryant, Muncie, and Mrs. Roma Barnes, Indianapolis; a stepson, Lloyd Reynolds, South Bend; eight grandchildren; three stepgrandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Edith Ziegler, Redkey.

[buried Elm Ridge Memorial Park, Delaware County, IN]