Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 10th. day of July, 1924.

Elmer Harding, Clerk.

Indianapolis, Indiana.

I, Elizabeth B. O'Brien, spinster, being of sound and disposing mind, do, this day devise and bequeath to my brothers Lewis Edward O'Brien, and Charles Maurice O'Brien, in equal part, and to their heirs and assigns forever, all of my share and interest in the farm lying North of the Shoals and Loogootee road in Martin County, Indiana, also my interest in such live stock, machinery and agricultural implements as may be there.

To my brother James Christopher O'Brien I devise and bequeath all of my interest in the real estate which lies South of said Shoals and Loogootee road, and adjoining his farm on the East. Also to said James Christopher O'Brien, I leave my one half interest in the 44 acres of river bottom land in said Martin County, Indiana.

To my brother George Francis O'Brien I leave the sum of one thousand ($1000.00) dollars cash, and to each one of his three children, Paul James, Mary Eileen Elizabeth, and Robert Desmond O'Brien, a like sum of one thousand ($1000.00), dollars to be used in helping to secure for them a good college education, and I hereby appoint said George Francis O'Brien, as trustee of these several sums until the money has been expended for the purpose specified.

To each of my nieces, Mary Elizabeth, and Katherine Louise O'Brien, the daughters of James Christopher O'Brien, I bequeath the sum of one thousand ($1000.00), dollars and do hereby appoint said James Christopher O'Brien as trustee of these sums of money to be used in the education of said Mary Elizabeth and Katherine Louise O'Brien, in such schools as he may select.

It is my desire that such furniture, books, pictures and personal property, other than silver or jewelry, not heretofore disposed of, which I may own, and which are, at the time of my death in my home at Belgrade Farm, Martin County, Indiana, be divided as equally as may be, between my brothers Lewis Edward O'Brien and George Francis O'Brien, and that such furniture, books, pictures, and personal property other than jewelry and silverware, which may be in the rooms and offices occupied by me in the buildings known respectively as 1140 and 1146 East Market Street, Indianapolis, Indiana be divided as equally as possible between my brothers Charles Maurice O'Brien, and James Christopher O'Brien, with the single exception of the grandfather's clock which I desire to be given to my nephew Paul James O'Brien.

It is my will that such jewelry and silverware as I may possess at the time of my death be divided equally among my nieces Mary Eileen Elizabeth, Mary Elizabeth, and Katherine Louise O'Brien, and if, after all of the expenses of my last illness and burial, and all of my just debts are paid, there should remain any residue of moneys, not herein disposed of that it be equally divided among my nieces.

Witness my hand and seal, this 24th. day of January, 1922.

Alvin Padgett.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 14th., day of September, 1928.

Elmer Harding, Clerk.

I, Elizabeth M. Baker, (widow) of Shoals, Martin County, Indiana, do make and declare the following instrument to be my last will and testament.

FIRST

I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid from the first funds available.

SECOND.

I direct my Executor to purchase a high, dry lot in the Shoals cemetery for burial ground and I direct my Executor to purchase and erect a substantial marker for my grave to be about three (3) ft. high. I desire that my body be placed in a substantial cement vault.

THIRD.

I own a farm in Martin County on which is a cemetery, which I give and bequeath to Martin County, and when this bequest is accepted by the Officials of Martin County, I direct my Executor to have same surveyed and to erect a substantial fence of cement posts with heavy iron rods running through, and to clean and put the ground in good condition, and pay all expenses out of the proceeds of my estate.

FOURTH.

I give, devise and bequeath to my aunt, Mary E. Stiles of Shoals, Indiana, my home, to-wit; Lots seventy-five (75) and eight-eight (88) in said town of Shoals, formerly called Memphis, together with all buildings thereon and contents in buildings, with the provision that said Mary E. Stiles shall distribute said contents in accordance with instructions which I have given her and I desire that she be permitted to make such distributions without interference or hindrance.

FIFTH.

I give to Ruth Baker of Shoals, Indiana, (a grand daughter of my deceased husband) the sum of $500.00 in cash; to Allen Baker of Shoals, (a grand-son of my deceased husband) the sum of $500.00 in cash; to Bernice McCampbell, (my cousin) of Phoenix, Arizona, the sum of $100.00 in cash; to my aunt, Mrs. Nancy J. Metcalf, of Spring Valley, Ill., the sum of $500.00 in cash; to my uncle James Smith, of Spring Valley, Ill., $300.00 in cash; to Mrs. Emma Paeel of Shoals, Indiana, $5.00 in cash; to my cousin, Bertha Brown of 83 South Sterling Street, Dayton, Ohio, the sum of $1,000.00 in cash, same to be used as a fund to educate her son, Richard Brown. It is my wish that my said cousin, Bertha Brown, have full and complete supervision and management of said $1,000.00 and earnings thereof, and that she expend the same for the benefit of her son, Richard, in accordance with her best judgment; to my cousin, Grace Pfaff of Shoals, Indiana, the sum of $1,000.00 in cash; to my aunt, Nancy Steele of Shoals, Indiana, the sum of $500.00 in cash; to my aunt, Rhoda Price, 200 S.E. -2-

SIXTH

I give, devise and bequeath to the Methodist Church of Shoals, Indiana, First Liberty Loan Bond, Converted No. 45096, maturing June 15th., 1947 for the amount of $500.00 to create a fund to be managed solely and wholly by said church as payment of my usual dues and for keeping my grave in order. When this bond matures, the Trustees of said church may at their option pay the principal sum into the general fund of the church.

SEVENTH

I direct my Executor to convert all property, Real, personal and mixed, belonging to me at my death and not otherwise disposed of in this will, in cash, and use the proceeds in payment of the various bequests and gifts made by this will as promptly as practical.

I nominate my relative, Mr. Azor C. Smith of French Lick, Indiana, as Executor of this will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 15th. day of October 1926.

Elizabeth M. Baker, (Seal).

The Undersigned hereby certified that Mrs. Elizabeth M. Baker of Shoals, Indiana in our presence, signed the foregoing instrument and declared same to be her last will and testament and that each of us at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, do hereunto affix our names and seals as witnesses to said will, this 15th., day of October, 1926.

WITNESS. Elmer Scarlett, (Seal).
Wm. C. Ellis, (seal).

Codicil

I, Elizabeth Baker, do hereby make, publish and declare the following codicil to my will, which will has, heretofore, been duly executed, to wit;

I give, will and bequeath to and unto my cousin, Grace Pfaff, the residue of my estate of every kind and character whatsoever, after the payment of my debts, and the bequests mentioned in my said will.

Last Will and Testament of Vinton W. Shuck.

Deceased.

I, Vinton W. Shuck, of the city of Urbana, County of Champaign, and State of Illinois, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, declare and publish the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made;

FIRST: I hereby direct that as soon after my death as may be conveniently done, my executrix, hereinafter named, shall pay all my just debts and obligations, including funeral expenses and expenses of last illness, and including appropriate tombstone at my grave.

SECOND: After the payment of debts, as above described, and subject to the provisions contained in paragraph three hereof, I will, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real, personal or mixed, which I now own, or may hereafter acquire, wherever situated, unto my wife, Louise Shuck, my daughter, Ellen M. Shuck and my son, Fred V. Shuck, in equal parts among them, share and share alike, to be theirs absolutely forever.

THIRD: Whereas, I have heretofore paid certain money to or for my said children hereinabove named, and contemplate that I may hereafter make certain further payments on behalf of them, or either of them, either in money or property, and whereas, it is my desire and intention that neither of my said children shall acquire or receive a greater share or proportion of my estate than the other, I hereby direct that all such sums so paid, or to be paid, or the value of all property advanced, or which may be advanced, shall be charged against the share of either of my said children, to whom or in behalf of whom such sums or property shall be paid, or made over, and the amount thereof deducted from the amount which such child would otherwise receive, it being my express intention that the same shall be treated as advancements, and not as gifts.

LASTLY: I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Louise Shuck and my daughter, Ellen M. Shuck, to be executrices of this, my last will and testament, and respectfully request that the Court admitting this will probate shall not require any bond of them as such executrices.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12 day of October A. D. 1923.

Vinton W. Shuck. (SEAL).

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that Vinton W. Shuck signed

-2-

In the Name of the Benevolent Father, I, George H. Sterling, being now of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being aware of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

Item First; It is my will that after my decease my remains shall receive interment in a manner suitable to one of my station in life and that as soon thereafter as is convenient all the expenses of my last illness and my interment, together with my just debts, be paid.

Item Second; I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Maggie J. Sterling all the property of which I may die seized, real, personal or mixed she to make such disposal thereof at her death as may seem suitable and meet, reposing full confidence in her ability and fairness.

Item Third; I make no bequests to my children as they are all in comfortable circumstances and are so situated in life and so provided with this world's goods that no provision is necessary to be made by me, farther than that I have already made for them by help and assistance I have heretofore given them, and such help and assistance as I may give them during the remainder of my allotted time.

Item Fourth; I hereby nominate my wife Maggie J. Sterling as executrix of this will and testament.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand this twenty second day of November, One thousand Nine Hundred and twenty three.

George H. Sterling.

Signed by the above testator George H. Sterling in our presence and acknowledged as his last will and testament and signed by us in his presence and in the presence of each other, as witnesses, at the special instance and request of said testator, this November 22, 1923.

Eunice Jackman,

C O D I C I L .

I, George H. Sterling, of Martin County, Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and having heretofore executed my last will and testament, bearing date November 22, 1923, do now make, publish and declare this to be a codicil thereto;

Item I. I will and bequeath to my sons Fielding H. Sterling and John Benjamin Sterling, at the death of my said wife Maggie J. Sterling, the fee simple title to all real estate which may by this will descend to her from me, it being the intention of Item Second in said will to vest in my said wife Maggie J. Sterling only a life estate in said real estate, and by this codicil to vest the remainder interest thereof in said Fielding H. Sterling and John Benjamin Sterling, my sons/

In all other respects I reaffirm the provisions contained in said last will and testament.

Witness, my hand and seal this 21st day of April, 1924.

George H. Sterling.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by said George H. Sterling, as a codicil to his last will and testament, who, at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses this 21st day of April, 1924.

This is my last will and testament.

I want my son Purl Wildman to have my International Dictionary. The set of knives and forks, table and teaspoons and napkin ring with word Mother on it, also a sugar shell and butter knife with Letter A on, to be given my brother Leonard McGuyer if living it was his gift to our mother, If Leonard McGuyer is not living give the afore mentioned box of silver to his son Kenneth McGuyer. If my husband William Wildman wishes to live in the house, he may do so, but not sell things out of the house, but if my husband and sons, Curtis and Purl can come to an agreement then for William my husband to live with with one of them then the house and contents are to be sold and money put into bonds or good securities bearing interest, the interest of my bonds to pay taxes keep up property and my husband, William use if he wishes to live in said property. My husband is to have the interest on the bonds, and use of the home as long as he lives, and then at his death it is to be all property to be sold and entire amount to be divided equal. But if my husband sees fit to live with one of them, they sons and husband may come to an agreement about my property. and settle justly between them.

My husband is to have use of the home while he lives if he wishes and interest on bonds. At his death it is to be divided equal between my son Purl Wildman and Curtis Wildman. My expenses are to be paid after my death.

I will name William Wallace as executor.
