In January, 1862, this regiment reported 683 men present for duty, had 55 disabled at Fishing Creek, and suffered 8 casualties at Perryville. It lost thirty-six percent of the 336 at Murfreesboro and thirty-nine percent of the 145 at Chickamauga. The 25th/44th reported 95 casualties of the 259 engaged at Drewry's Bluff. On April 9, 1865, the 25th surrendered 4 officers and 21 men. The field officers were Colonels John M. Hughes and Sidney S. Stanton; Lieutenant Colonels Samuel Davis, George G. Dibrell, R.C. Sarah Pauline "Sally" Franklin

W. B. Bowden was trustee of Fentress County two terms, and served one term as a member of the State Legislature in the latter part of the 70's. He was a member of the county court for many years.

He married Sallie Franklin, and lived on a farm he owned on the river above Boatland, now owned by James E. Beaty. He and his wife are both buried in the cemetery on this farm. Near the cemetery is an Indian mound, from which some Indian relics have been taken.

She was buried in 1906 in Dempsy Bowden Cemetery, , Fentress, Tennessee.

Tombstone at Dempsy Bowden cemetery says she was born 8 Nov 1830. Since birthdate only was given, she may not be buried there.

Have seen birth as Jan 1829-1830.

NOTE: It looks as though Sallie may have married her Step Uncle. William Bowden is the brother of Polley Bowden - who is Clark Franklin's second wife.
