William R. Barton was born in Kentucky, Jan 11, 1852 and died May 18, 1926 aged 74 years. On the 4th of Jan 1872 he was married to Catherine Ellen Trump. To this union were born 10 children, one of whom died in childhood. He is survived by the widow and the follow children: James B. of Little Rock, Ark; Jesse of Col. Springs, Col; William of Logansport; Harvey of Lebanon; Harry of Ft. Sill, Okla.; Mrs. John Bugg of Bainbridge; Mrs. Dan Murphy of Crawfordsville; Mrs. Bert Murray of Russellville; and Mrs. Guy Durham of Waveland. He also leaves 18 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. William R. Barton was a man of positive ideas; with strong likes and dislikes, but in the final analysis he was considerate, forgiving and kind. By nature he was a seeker after the truth -- he tried to inform himself on different subjects in order that his judgements might be founded on facts; thus he developed a mind that was broad and charitable, ever conceding to the other fellow the same rights and privileges he demanded for himself. He was an adherent to the Primitive Baptist Church and a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge. To the principles and teachings of both he was very devoted. During the last years of his life he was practically an invalid - he suffered much pain but endured it with patience. During his pain and suffering he found much relief in the love and kindness shown him by his children and especially by that true, deep and unselfish love shown and extended to him, during every hour of the day or night, during his sickness by the angel of mercy -- that mother of mothers - his faithful wife and companion. He has gone; may peace be to his ashes and rest to his soul.

Notes for MARGARET GENEVA BARTON:

Waveland Independent Feb 18, 1910 -- Margaret Geneva, daughter of Harve and Clara Barton was born Aug 7, 1907, died Feb 12, 1910, aged 2 years 6 months 5 days. Her young and tender heart was filled to overflowing with kindness, obedience, and love. The light of her smiles and the sweetness of her life won a permanent abode in the hearts of all with whom she came in contact. She seemed to be cast in a superior mould, manifesting such traits of character as goodness of heart, purity of life, a wisdom and understanding which has often called forth the expression, from many who are approaching the footlights of the western slope of life, that she was too good, too intelligent, possessing that expression of something that makes her not a child of this world but an angel of God and that to him she would early wheel her flight. She has gone home, an angel of earth for a few days; now an angel in Heaven forever. She has exchanged the cares and caresses of the cradle for the endless glories of an endless day. One more flower of earth transplanted into the greenhouse of eternity. Father, mother, brother, sister and friends, a light has gone out of your home to shine on another shore. Empty shoes and stockings and idle playthings lie silent on the floor but look up oh sad hearts weeping in your sorrow and your pain for in the kingdom of the blessed you shall meet your own again. For there on the highest sills of Heaven sits your little angel Margaret guarding o'er you, waiting and watching for your return when life is done. She is not dead - she lives forever. Peaceful and happy be her soul. Daniel Murphy
