

ELIZABETH REMLEY

Source: Crawfordsville Journal, February 12, 1907

The will of Miss Elizabeth Remley was probated Tuesday. David Remley and Ambrose Remley were appointed executors. The deceased leaves an estate valued at about $30,000, of which $11,000 is personal property. As indicated recently, she leaves a large sum for charitable work.

The bequests follow: To the First Presbyterian Church of this city, $1000
Ladies' Missionary Society of First Presbyterian Church, $200
Ladies' Aid, $200;
Christian Endeavor, $200
Ladies' Missionary Work, $200.

In no instance are these bequests to be used to pay off debts of the societies named.
Each niece and nephew gets $100
the board of state missions of the Presbyterian Church, $1000 and the board of foreign missions, $1000.

The remainder of the property of all descriptions is left to James, Ambrose, Daniel and David Remley, brothers, and the children of William Remley.

- transcribed by kbz