Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal 21 Feb 1891

Last Tuesday after a session of over a week the grand jury made its report to Judge Snyder. 41 indictments were returned, nearly every crime known being on the list. There will be a large number of surprises and some good people will be yanked before the court who imagined themselves secure. The indictment returned against Charley Coombs, the slayer of Walter McClure was for murder in the first degree. His case will come up in the March term.
