

LARRY BAZZANI -- broken arm

Source: Waveland Independent, July 23, 1953

Larry BAZZANI, six-year-old twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bazzani, suffered a broken right arm Thursday evening when he fell from a tree. He was taken to Culver Hospital in the Machledt ambulance and was released Friday afternoon. X-Rays will be taken in two weeks to determine whether an operation will have to be performed on his arm. ----- both typed by his sister, Karen Bazzani Zach - my twin brothers were always getting hurt or gettin' into trouble :)

Source: Waveland Independent, Aug 13, 1953

Larry Bazzani entered Culver Hospital Tuesday evening and underwent a corrective surgery on his arm Thursday morning. He was released Saturday and will remain in a cast for 8 weeks. His right arm was broken in a fall from a tree three weeks ago.

- typed by his sister, Karen Bazzani Zach

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.