

BOGERT, Sally

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal 28 Oct 1898 p 8

Last Monday fire broke out in the dive of Sally Bogert, in the north end and before the department arrived the house was a practical ruin. The inmates ran frantically about and managed to pull the half burned piano and their trunks out in the street. After the department had returned to the engine house the cruel, hungry flames broke out again, necessitating a second run.