

JEHU CHADWICK's 50th anniversary

Source: Crawfordsville Review March 27, 1917 p 6

Mr. and Mrs. Jehu Chadwick, of West Main Street, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary yesterday afternoon and evening. THE home was beautifully decoarted for the rare occasion. The color scheme being in yellow and white, consisting of huge boquets of roses, carnations and daffodils. The bride and groom of 50 years received their guest sin the west parlor. Quite a music program was rendered consisting of choice solos, duets and quartetts, also instrumental selections of great musical talent. White cards with bows of yellow ribbon bearing the dates March 25, 1867 March 25, 1917 were used as favors.

Dainty refreshments consisting of white and golden colored ice cream, white cake, coffee and yellow mints were served to the many guests who assembled to commemorate this event. Many beautiful gifts were received in token of the high esteem tendered this happy couple.

Their many friends join in extending heartiest congratulations to this honored couple and in wishing them many more such happy days. - typed by kbz

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.