They went to housekeeping on a farm there where they remained until 1864, when they moved to Michigan. They stayed there until 1878, when they came to Crawfordsville where they have since resided. Mr. and Mrs. Coyle are enjoying excellent health and bid fair to live to celebrate their diamond wedding. Mr. Coyle is a native of Ireland, having been born at Cote Hill, County Caven in October 1818. He was taken when quite small to Canada where he grew to manhood. Mrs. Coyle was born on Sir James Pringle's estate, Torwood Lee, near Galshiels, Scotland in 1812, and like her husband was taken by her parents as a child to Canada. - transcribed by kbz
