

GEORGE CONRAD -- FIRE

Source: Weekly Argus News, Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Indiana Jan 20, 1894

George Conrad and family, residing north of Darlington, attended a literary entertainment in the neighborhood last night and returned to find their home a smoldering heap of ruins. It had taken fire during their absence, probably from a defective flue and the house and contents were rendered a complete loss. The damage is over $1,000 with partial insurance in the Home of New York. -- transcribed by kbz
