Last Wed. was the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Abner P. Enoch and Phoebe Foust. Their children and friends planned and carried out to the letter a surprise in honor of the event. Mr. Enoch brought a load of wood to town that morning, went home and gathered a load of corn, and upon his return to the house at noon, was somewhat amazed to find that his premises had been taken possession of by about 50 of his friends and neighbors. An elegant dinner was spread and the afternoon spent most pleasantly in a social way. The Journal trusts that Mr. & Mrs. Enoch may live to celebrate their diamond wedding!
