

SAMUEL FISHER - falls in fire

Source: Crawfordsville Star, Feb 9, 1875 p 2

"Bowers Station" - Samuel Fisher met with a very sad accident Thursday Jan 28th. After he had retired for the night not feeling very well he arose sat down in front of the fire, when he fainted and falling in the fire burned his face and neck to a crisp. The hair all burned from his head. He is in bad condition. - typed by kbz

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.