

EARL FRANKLIN HERRON -40th Anniversary at RRD

Source: Obituary from a collection of Fauniel Hershbarger, a life-long Fountain County Indiana resident Earl F. Herron, shipping department chauffeur at R. R. Donnelley & Sons Co., celebrated his 40th service anniversary Friday, Feb. 5. He began his career as a paper handler, later working in the pressroom and bindery before assuming his present position. Herron lives with his wife, Cora, on the Attica Road. The Herrons have seven children, Mrs. Ruby Ralston, Mrs. Mary Abston, Mrs. Helen Rutledge, Mrs. Jane Whipple and William, Charles and Jack Herron. Jack is employed in the bindery at Donnelleys. Two brothers also are employed at Donnelleys. They are Clarence, who works in the M pressroom, and Lawrence, in the C pressroom. Herron's leisure time is spent raising stock on his farm and enjoying his 16 grandchildren. – jlr