

RANKIN - HOFFE

Source: Crawfordsville Review, June 30, 1914 p 4

Jack Rankin and his wife, Elsie, who were arrested in Crawfordsville's famous district, Monon Hill, Saturday evening were arraigned Monday morning in police court and each plead guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace. Jack and his spouse were entertaining the neighbors with some choice English with a little Dago. The male member of the class was given $1 and costs, while the female element received $5 and costs. The worthy protector of Elsie stayed his fine, and Elsie could not produce the "green" consequently Elsie resides in a select suite in the county hotel.

Otis Hoffe who was arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery was arraigned in court Monday morning and plead guilty. He denied the charges made against him. On his plea, Hoffe's trial was set for next Monday. He was released on bond. - kbz
