

JOHNSON, Charles - Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal 30 August 1895 p 8

Marshall Grimes received word several days ago that Charles Johnson, the colored man, who stole Bernard Cooper's wheel here had escaped from the insane hospital at Indianapolis. The superintendent stated that Johnson was not insane but had merely been feigning. Marshal Grimes kept quiet awaiting developments and Tuesday learned that Johnson had been captured at Cincinnati. After his escape from the hospital he stole three more wheels. He will probably be returned here for trial - kbz
