-- The Kulinary Kraft Klub met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rose Long on west Pike street and held its annual holiday entertainment. This was to have been given on New Years eve, but for various reasons was postponed until this time. The dining room was beautifully decorated suitable to the Christmas season, the crowning feature being a large Christmas tree which occupied one end of the room. This was decorated and brilliantly lighted by miniature electric lights, the globes being in the shape of fruit and flowers. At six o'clock dinner was served in course, the center pieces of the table being a miniature house, surrounded by snow and a rence of holly, a jolly little Santa Claus with his pack was just ready to descend into the chimney. The table was lighted by many red tapers in christal candlesticks and the place cards were suggestive to the season. After the serving of the dinner all interest was centered on the Christmas tree which held gifts for every one. Masters Robert Long and Karl Crane distributed the gifts to the guests. Each received a present in the shape of a joke which was much appreciated by the crowd, as well as gifts of use and beauty. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Walter San, Mrs. Jess Cunningham, Miss Mae Cook ad Miss Mable Hamilton.
