

Jenny LAMSON

Montgomery County, Indiana

Waveland Independent

Waveland, Montgomery County, Indiana

July 26, 1915

Jenny Lamson escapes injury

Sunday night as Mrs. Charles Lamson was driving home from Church, the shafts became partly detached from her buggy on the Van Hill. She was able to control the horse, however, until she crossed the railroad, and there a vehicle coming from the north collided with and tore off the front wheel. The parties, who were strangers, assisted Mrs. Lamson in stopping the horse. She escaped without injury.

The website management appreciates all the contributions provided for use here.