

WALTER MAUCK

SUSTAINS BROKEN LEG

Source: Crawfordsville Daily Journal 6-15-1914

Ladoga June 17- Walter Mauck, an employee of the Havens Poultry House sustained a broken leg while at work today. No one was in the room with Mauck when the accident occurred, but it is thought he slipped and fell, catching his leg behind a gasoline engine near which he was at work. The fracture is between the knee and ankle. Mauck was given medical attention, after which he was removed to the home of his mother, with whom he lives. His injury is considered serious. - kbz
