Darlington -- Mrs. Charles BEAL returned home Tuesday from a 10-day visit at Detroit, Michigan with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I (Isaac) S McDuffie. While there she attended the golden wedding anniversary of her parents at the home of her sister, Mrs. Floyd Summers, Bowling Green Michigan on Saturday March 17. The color scheme was yellow and green daffodils and roses being used. The center piece for the table was yellow roses sent by a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McDuffie, Mrs. Harry Wilson of Denver Colorado who was unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. McDuffie are the parents of six children and all were present except the one daughter and one grandson. During the day many letters and telegrams of congratulations were received from relatives and friends. Many beautiful gifts were received. Charles Beal attended and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smart of Ohio but who formerly lived here also attended the golden wedding [anniversary].
