

NEW RICHMOND - GREENCASTLE BASKETBALL

Source: This was found (no date/name of paper) in a large collection of clippings having belonged to Joan Oppy, a great genealogist and life-long New Richmond resident -- typed by kbz

The company of 36 New Richmondites who went to Greencastle Friday afternoon, the attraction being the basket ball game there that evening between our own favored HS five and the Greencastle HS team, including the Messrs. H.A. Kesler; Ernest Kirkpatrick; Ernest Greenburg; Lee Mason; Russell Kirkpatrick; Ira Cunningham; Ferrel Monroe; Jim Alexander; Chester Dunn; Lester Clark; Ralph Teague; Leslie Todd; Albia Raub; Willie Flaughter; George Banta; Everett Greenburg; Frank Lamson and Harry McMillin; Misses Margie Bible; Edna Shelby; Mary Seaman; Letha Coffman; Mae Coffman; Nettie Hanawalt; Ruby Dick; Ethel Dunn; Gertrude Frame (?).

This whole company, with Miss Ruth Tribby and Messrs. Bruce; Lemon; Rosenberg and Hotchkiss were banqueted after the game at the home of Rev. Geo. B. Jones. Our young folks are loud in their praise of the hospitality shown them in their visit to Greencastle.

The boys were taken in hand by Messrs. Bruce; Lemmon; Hotchkiss and Rosenberg who showed them every courtesy and made their short stay a most happy one. These sterling young men have certainly a warm spot in the hearts of our young people, as well as those whose acquaintance they made in their recent stays in New Richmond
