

Queen Esther Society

Note: This is a clipping from Joan Oppy, a life-long resident of New Richmond in several clippings I received. I assume since the girls listed are girls from the New Richmond area, that this is either school or more likely, Church-oriented. Queen Esther was a simple, Jewish girl, strong, afraid and perfectly human. Although beautiful, she never worried of her beauty. Love to know more of this group and if it is indeed based on Esther of the bible. Assume so - kbz

Mrs. Lynn Timmons was given a surprise party at her home Saturday afternoon when nearly 20 of the Queen Esther girls came in unannounced. Mrs. Timmons is the assistant superintendent of the Society. Refreshments of sherbet and Paris dainties were served. Mrs. Timmons was present a dozen silver teaspoons. Miss Opal Westfall making the presentation of the gift, which betokened the esteem in which Mrs. Timmons is held by the Society. Those present were: Misses Kathleen Cook, Ina Hornbeck, Arba Horn, Opal Westfall, Mildred Davidson, Maud Davidson, Valverta Haywood, Alta Graves, Ethelynn Miller, Margaret Rayborn, Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Ruth Jones, Bertha Wray, Grace Hinton, Hazel Blackburn, Dorothy White and Zella Blackburn, and Mrs. B.C. Rayborn.
