

ED SERGENT - hurt on Railway

Source: Crawfordsville Star March 5, 1872 p 3

Our young friend Ed Sergent, baggageman on the LC&SW Railway we are sorry to learn, met with a very serious accident a few days since, in getting his left arm or wrist badly crushed between cars. Ed is now off on furlough, but hopes to be able to resume business very soon. - kbz