

GEORGE WASHINGTON & MARY CATHERINE (CLARK) SPENCER - 50th Anniversary

Source: Waveland Independent, Aug 31, 1912

Mr. & Mrs. George Spencer Mr. & Mrs. GW Spencer at their quiet home W. of Milligan will remember with pleasure Aug 21, 1912 it being the Golden Anniv. of their marr. The children, 9 in all with their families gathered home during the morning. Toward the noon hour tables were placed under the maples in the yard and filled from bounteous baskets. Immediately after dinner George Spencer presented father and mother with a remembrance bearing the best wishes and kindly thoughts of those present. As soon as the tables were cleared Mr. Upp of Rockville took several group pictures. Mr. & Mrs. Spencer with their children, all of whom are living except one, Willie and their families number 42. There is one great grandson. Mrs. Amanda Bloomfield and Mrs. Edna Patton, sisters of GW Spencer and Miss Nannie Bloomfield were the only guests aside from the immediate family. The others present were: Mr. & Mrs. John Spencer and family, Russellville; Mr. & Mrs. George Spencer and family, Rockville; Mr. & Mrs. Allen Spencer, Mr. & Mrs. Fred Spencer, Mr. & Mrs. Jesse Spencer and family; Mr. & Mrs. Ben Canine; Mr. & Mrs. Elmer McCutchan, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Spencer and Miss Aria Spencer, all from Milligan. Mr. & Mrs. Wilbur Spencer and son, from near Waveland. Owing to the failing health of Mother Spencer the day will be filled with precious memories for those present. - transcribed by kbz
