

LEROY SUMMERS - defrauds paper carrier

Source: Unknown newspaper but possibly late September in 1957

Refusal to pay a Journal-Review newspaper carrier proved costly Friday morning to Leroy Summers, West Market Street. Summers was arrested Thursday on a Circuit Court warrant and pleaded guilty when he was arraigned before Judge Howard A. Sommer. He was given a fine of $1 and costs - a total of $19.65. In addition, he had to pay the carrier $2.45 he owed the youngster. Summer had spent the night in jail when he was unable to post bond. A state law provides a fine for anyone defrauding a paper carrier. In addition, a jail sentence of 30 days is possible. -- thanks to Connie W. for this nifty little piece
