

Truth Seekers - New Richmond

The Truth-Seekers Circle class of the ME Sunday School held an all-day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. H.B. Tribby. One of the biggest things in the day's pleasure was the fine dinner served at noon at which about 25 of the ladies with several children did their very best. In the afternoon the usual routine of business was gone through, the names of four new members being added to the roll. In the social afternoon following, the moments were livened by music, some very excellent instrumental music by Mrs. Attie Kirkpatrick, a song by an impromptu ladies quartette, then some varied contests and much fun.

Sorry, unknown sources - these were clippings of Joan Oppy, life-time resident of New Richmond, but no idea of what paper / year / etc

The Truth Seekers Circle held their annual meeting at which they entertained their husband and families Thursday evening at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepherd, north of town. A very interesting program of music was given and was well received. Prizes were won in contests, the winners being: Mrs. B.C. Rayborn and Mrs. W.Q. McBeth. After the contests the names of noted men and their wives were distributed, each gentleman finding his partner and joining in a grand march to the south porch where a dairy lunch of chicken sandwiches, salad, pickles, coffee, iced tea, ice cream and cake were served. In spite of the threatening weather about 80 persons were present. They departed at a late hour expressing themselves as having had a very delightful time.
