

THOMAS WELLS - falls down stairs

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, Crawfordsville, 22 September 1893

Thomas Wells, an old man living near the Junction, fell down the stairway leading up to Drs. Gott & Taylor's office, Monday evening and sustained serious injuries. His right shoulder was broken, hand injured, and he was suffering from injuries to his hand. He was removed to the county asylum and has been unconscious ever since the fall. His condition is serious.

- thanks so very much to Kim H for all her obit finding/transcribing