

WELCH, Luella

Source: Crawfordsville Journal, 18 Nov 1893

Last night a spelling bee occurred in the school house near Townsley's Ford. During the recess those in attendance indulged in a frolic in the school yard. While running Miss Luella Welch 16-year-old daughter of Robert Welch, tripped and fell upon a large stone. Her right elbow was dislocated and the humerus sustained a compound fracture. She was taken to her home suffering terribly and Dr. Gott hastily summoned from the city. Her injuries are of a serious character - kbz