

D.K. Young - suffers heart attack

Source: Darlington Herald 2-2-1917

Monday morning about 9 o'clock while on his way to his store, D.K. Young suffered an attack of heart trouble. He was in front of A.H. Bowers' residence at the time and when seen was clinging to a tree to support himself. He was assisted to his store and a physician summoned. He was soon revived and is again attending to his duties at the store.
