

CALVIN BEEMAN - found after many years

Source: Crawfordsville (Indiana) Sunday Star, Nov 28, 1903 p16

On November 26, 1867, Calvin F Beeman, living near Mace, left home to visit his relatives near Greencastle, and that was the last any of the family knew of him until about a week ago he wrote a letter to his daughter, Mrs. Newton McCormick of this city. He left a wife and three children, but his wife and one child are dead His wife was married again, and he has again been married and has three children by his second wife Beeman had been given up long ago as dead and when he comes back Christmas he can explain his movements, which have been a mystery for so many years.
