

WILLIAM BRIDGES & Wife - surprise Christmas

Source: Waveland Independent Waveland, Montgomery County, Indiana Friday Dec 28, 1900

William Bridges and wife had a very pleasant surprise Christmas Day. Early in the morning, OB Groves and family, Ben Bilbo and family and Miss Mary Sith of Crawfordsville, appeared at their residence with baskets loaded with turkey, cake and everything needed to make a fine Christmas dinner. While in very poor health, Mr. Bridges is holding his own. (Note from KZ: he died the 20th of January in 1901, not long after the pleasant evening with friends and relatives.)
