

Mr. and Mrs. Roy BROWN - Chivari

Roy Brown and wife who have recently moved into the O.W. Mason property in the west part of New Richmond were the victims of a large charivari party Monday night. The charivari did not occur until after band practice and then headed by the New Richmond Band the procession marched to the home of the newlyweds. They were royally received by Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the whole company was treated to apples and cigars. The guests then started dancing at the invitation of the hostess and the party did not break up until a late hour. Everyone present joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Brown a most happy and successful married life. "No violence occurred and Mr. Brown emerged unscathed." -- typed by kbz

Note: No newspaper noted or a date - this neat piece was in a large collection having belonged to Joan Oppy. Thanks so much to the Oppys for letting me use these on the GenWeb page.

Note 2: Fairly sure this is Roy E. Brown and Lenora King - married 23 Dec 1923 - if someone knows differently, PLEASE let me know
