

Campbell - Chappell

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 17 December 1892

Some time ago, the daughter of John Chappell, of Sugar Grove, ran off with his hired man and Chappell had Bill Campbell, of New Richmond, arrested for swearing falsely at to the girl's age. He was jailed but after wards acquitted, and suing for false imprisonment was Monday awarded $150 damages at Lafayette. He was represented by Col. Courtney. - thanks to Kim H
