

GRACE CARR ENGAGED

Source: Crawfordsville Weekly Journal, 31 August 1900

Word has been received here of the engagement of Miss Grace Carr, a niece of Mrs. Dr. Purviance and Bruce Carr, of this city, to Lord Roseborough, of Wales. Miss Carr is a daughter of the late Col. Carr and has frequently visited her cousin, Mrs. M. W. Bruner, here. She is a beautiful girl and has been greatly admired. Her sister, Miss Alice Carr, who has also visited here, was married some years ago to S. S. Chauncey, of New York, who recently died, leaving her a great fortune. Mrs. Chauncey with her mother and Miss Grace went to Egypt last winter and there met Lord Roseborough. He fell in love with Miss Carr and their engagement followed. She and her mother are now visiting Lord Roseborough's country place in Wales. He is a very wealthy and popular young man owning one of the largest and best estates in Wales. - thanks to Kim H
